TORONTO—FINANCIAL FACTS

Three of the eight Canadan Chartered Banks have their Head Offices in Toronto. (While the Head Office of the Bank of Nova Scotia is in Halifax, the General Manager's Office is in Toronto).

The total assets of all eight commercial banks (i.e. except Bank of Canada) are $27,773,000,000, as of December 31, 1966.

THE TORONTO HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS

The Port of Toronto, through continued expansion and planned development, has become one of the most modern harbours on the Great Lakes with a cargo tonnage placing it among the leaders of both Canadian lake and sea ports.

Under the direction and administration of The Toronto Harbour Commissioners, with the co-operation of the City Council and the Dominion Government, Toronto Harbour has experienced very marked improvements in navigation, commercial and industrial facilities. Two large waterfront industrial areas have been created almost entirely out of non-revenue producing marsh lands and lands previously covered by water. A third is now being developed between the Eastern Channel and Leslie street in Lake Ontario which will eventually provide additional dockage and berthage on a protected waterway two-thirds the size of Toronto Bay.

Serving these areas are concrete wharves and piers; twelve miles of modern dockage; 35 miles of terminal railway track owned or controlled by the Commissioners; perfect co-ordination of rail, water and highway transportation; wide streets and all modern conveniences and accommodation for industrial and commercial establishments.

The extent and beneficial importance of Toronto Harbour developments to the City and the impetus given the City's commerce by waterborne trade are intangibles difficult of measurement. A tangible result, however, is seen in the payment during 1966 of over six million dollars in taxes, made to the City by industry and manufacturers located on lands created by the Harbour development.

The following is a table of waterborne traffic cargo tonnage at Toronto Harbour, in short tons:

1964	5,673,632
1965	6,070,743
1966	5,701,202

Generally, material improvement in the physical condition and commercial importance of Toronto Harbour date from the inception in 1911 of the present method of administration by The Toronto Harbour Commissioners.

In addition to industrial developments, the Commissioners, working to a planned programme, have reclaimed park and recreational areas, most of which has been turned over to the City of Toronto.

Also extending easterly from the Humber River to Leslie Street, a distance of approximately 7 miles, is the cross-town waterfront highway made possible by the waterfront development, and with, for the most part, a minimum pavement width of 50 feet. Also constructed across the waterfront, generally on Port created lands, is the Gardiner Expressway.

The Toronto Island Airport and Seaplane Base, located south of the Western Channel entrance to Toronto Harbour, is operated by the Harbour Commissioners. It is located approximately one and one-half miles from the Union Station. Modernization of this Airport has taken place with the construction of a new 4,000 ft. runway and additional hangar buildings.

A new marine terminal of 140,000 sq. ft. was built in 1966. This is the fifth to be built in the Port since the St. Lawrence Seaway was started.

TORONTO INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

There are over 5,000 manufacturing establishments in Metropolitan Toronto. Toronto has twice as many branches of British and United States firms as the next ranking centre in Canada. The selling value of factory shipments in 1962 was over $4,500,000,000. There are in the Toronto area 240,000 industrial employees, and the 1962 manufacturing payroll approximated $1,800,000,000.

Some of the fields of production in which Toronto is outstanding are meat packing; electrical apparatus and supplies; rubber goods; machinery; pharmaceuticals; and printing and publishing.

Toronto is firmly established as Canada's leading industrial and distributing city. It is the immediate centre of the largest and wealthiest consuming population in Canada (one-third of the buying power of the entire Canadian market is concentrated with in a radius of 100 miles), and it is the center of country-wide business and wholesale trade. It is also a favorable base for world-wide export trade, which is one of the outstanding features in Canadian industrial development.

The volume and diversity of Toronto manufacturing provide under normal conditions plentiful and efficient labor, skilled and unskilled, male and female, in fact it is the provincial clearing house for labor.

Toronto has excellent transportation facilities with many sources of raw and semi-manufactured materials in close proximity. Rail, water, highway and air communications radiate from Toronto giving efficient low-cost distribution.

Splendid industrial sites are available in the harbour, in other zones within the city limits and in its industrial suburbs. It has electric power at cost and it is one of the financial centres of the North American Continent.

The Metropolitan Toronto Industrial Commission, 11 King Street West, Toronto, is the official industrial commission for the City of Toronto and covers 40 adjacent municipalities, ranging in population from a few thousand to the city of Toronto with a population of approximately 640,000.

Many other statistics show how rapid and sizeable has been the city's business growth. Consider the large increase in the number of telephones—the pulses of city commerce in Toronto.

The number of telephones in service since 1957 is as follows:—

December 31st, 1957	715,189
December 31st, 1958	762,620
December 31st, 1959	805,040

TORONTO PUBLIC LIBRARIES

The City of Toronto has 25 public libraries — the Central Library, corner College and St. George Streets; Boys and Girls House, 40 St. George Street; the new City Hall Library, Nathan Phillips Square, the Music Library, 559 Avenue Road at St. Clair, and 21 other branch libraries throughout the city. The Central Library includes the General Information Centre, History and Literature, Science and Technology, Social Sciences, Fine Art, Theatre and Drama, the Metropolitan Bibliographic Centre, the Historical and Circulating Picture Collections, the Baldwin Room of Manuscripts and Rare Canadiana, and the Toronto Room which contains Toronto pictures and bound volumes of Toronto newspapers. In Boys and Girls House are located the Osborne Collection of Early Children's Books, 1505-1910, and the Lillian H Smith Collection, 1911-1967. The City Hall Library provides the downtown area with a large Circulating collection and the Business Reference and Municipal Reference collections. There are also numerous smaller libraries supervised by the Toronto Public Libraries: 10 in hospitals, 11 in homes for the aged, and 7 in other institutions. The use of books in 1966 in the City's own libraries was 4,491,310 volumes, including those circulated and those consulted in the Library. Books in all libraries now total over 1,000,000.

Toronto offers unusual educational, religious, recreational and home facilities to the working man; sane labour laws honestly and ably administered, all result in satisfied and satisfactory employees.

All you need to know about creating new business opportunities can be written on an envelope.

Simple? Certainly. But in Canada's vast and growing markets, the biggest problem in selling is often simply a matter of getting your message to potential customers. And that's where we come in. At last count, over 50 Southam Business publications were being read by 400,000 potential customers, Canadians in every walk of business and industry. And that's a lot of customers in anybody's language.

MR. CITIZEN! . . .

CORRECT INFORMATION IS VALUABLE TO YOU!

Cooperate with the City Directory enumerators to see that your name and those of your family are correctly listed in each edition. Your name, listed correctly in the City Directory, is a great asset. This has been proved thousands of times, especially in cases of employment application, proof of residence, questions relating to citizenship, applications for welfare assistance, distribution of mail, etc. Be better established . . . be on record as a local citizen by seeing that your name is not missed or incorrectly listed in the Directory.

What this symbol means to you

Accuracy

Publishing production supervised by trained, experienced, professional Directory specialists.

Quality

A tradition of pride in producing the best publication possible, always with a view to improvement.

Standardization

Cooperation of publishers toward a uniformity of contents, features and arrangement of departments, making for a maximum of convenience and service to the user, with a watchful eye kept on the changing times and public needs, and with a continual exchange of ideas.

Dependability

A trade-mark representing a reputation for reliability and responsibility established prior to the turn of the century, and maintained throughout the years.
